

HIS NAME SPEAKS FOR ITSELF – NASRALLAH

TO THE EXTREMISTS:

Your Crimes Against Shias, Christians, & Other People are useless

SAYED HASAN NASRALLAH:

"What does it mean when we witness in recent years the blowing up of churches in more than one Islamic or Arabic country.

Or the slaughtering of Christians in churches with the excuse that they are not allowed to celebrate Christmas or the new years celebration? Even from the Islamic and the jurisprudential perspective, who said that it is permissible for you to do this?

These are parts of rituals, and the revival of rituals, which Islam has respected throughout history. Throughout history, from the time that Islam entered all these areas, these churches would celebrate Christmas and hold its masses and its occasions.

Therefore you are the ones bringing forth a new religion, you are the ones that are bringing forth a new innovation, when you wish to impose even the details of your thoughts with slaughters and killings, massacres and with explosions. . .

And this will not lead you to any result, this path is a dead end and in any case IT MUST STOP."
